

George Mueller

And we know that all things work together for good to them that love God. ROM 8, 28

Here was a famous blind preacher and teacher called George Mueller, whose faith was a legend. He wrote the following words about this verse. In one thousand trials it is not five hundred of them that work for the believers good. But nine hundred and ninety ninety of them and one beside.

The one beside is the important one. for God always gives full measure in answered prayer.

I sometimes liken my faith to the pictures one sees through a kaleidoscope. All are beautiful creations, unbelievable colours and shapes unimaginable beauty created by the flick of a wrist.

I don't know how it works, but I should imagine by a prism or mirrors, and you never get the same picture twice. Such is the variety and ingenuity of God's handiwork we are humbled by his glorious creation. Much of the glory of God is revealed in the bible. when you read from the scriptures ask the Holy Spirit to enlighten you. For the word of God is mightier than any two-edged sword.

When you waken in the morning its good to acknowledge God.

"For this is the Day the lord has made, let us rejoice and be glad in it" and remind yourself we serve a Living God, a risen Saviour, who has given us His holy Spirit to comfort, sustain and guide us through each day.
