

;

The Proverbs of Solomon, son of David, King of Israel

Let love and faithfulness never leave you ; bind them round your neck,

Write them on the tablet of your heart.

Then you will win favour and a good name, in the sight of God and man.

Proverbs 3; 3-4

“A proverb is a short pithy saying that expresses a traditionally held truth or piece of advice , based on common sense or experience.”.

For some time now I have been challenged to preach from the wisdom scriptures , especially the book of Proverbs.

I believe that we can benefit from these wisdom scriptures, for God’s word reveals so much about our common humanity.

We see ourselves , our neighbours, and our friends reflected in those words of wisdom.

“Let love and faithfulness never leave you.”

Nature,